8th May 1873.

Read letter from the Officiating President of the Municipal Commission, Madras, dated 20th December 1872, and recorded in Proceedings of Government of 7th February 1873, No. 182.

No. 76. ORDER THEREON, 8th May 1873, No. 600.

The Governor in Council confirms the bye-law marginally noted, which was proposed by the Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Madras and published, as required by Section 234 of the Madras Municipal Act, 1867, in five issues of the Fort St. George Gazette, and directs that the bye-law be re-published in five consecutive issues of the Gazette in the English, Tamil, Telugu, and Hindustani languages.

That every shop-keeper, cloth merchant, bazaarman, or other tradesman shall put up a board with his name in English and in the Vernaculars in front of his house, shop, bazaar, or other places of business.

Whoever shall commit any breach of the foregoing bye-law, by neglecting to do what is required by such bye-law, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rupees 5, and in the case of a continuing breach, to a further penalty not exceeding Rupees 5 for every day during which the breach is continued after the conviction for such offence.
