Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
16th May 1873.

No. 187. Read the following letter from D. BARBOUR, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort. St. George, dated Fort William, 12th March 1873, No. 1654 :—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 172, dated 5th February 1873, stating that the deputation allowance of Rupees 500 per mensem, which is granted to an officer employed on special duty, was fixed by the Local Government, in 1843, before the Supreme Government controlled the financial arrangements of the Madras Presidency.

2. In reply, I am to point out that the old rule dating from before 1843 was not sufficient authority, and that any such allowances now require the sanction of the Government of India.

3. The proceedings of the Government of Madras sanctioning the grant of deputation allowances to Messrs. Dalyell and Carmichael while employed on special duty are confirmed.

I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your Officiating Under-Secretary's letter, dated 12th March 1873, No. 1654, stating that the deputation allowance of Rupees 500 monthly to officers employed on special duty, which has been in force in this Presidency for thirty years since 1843, requires the sanction of the Government of India under the altered circumstances of the Financial Department, and to request that the Governor-General in Council will accordingly be pleased to sanction the maintenance of the present rate of allowance, as above stated, of Rupees 500 monthly. The cases to which it applies are mainly those of Members of the Board of Revenue deputed to visit the Provinces, and Collectors of Districts employed on special duty beyond their own district.
