No. 152. Read the following letter from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Officiating Comptroller-General, to the Accountant-General, Bombay, dated Calcutta, 2nd June 1874, No. 224 :—

With reference to your letters bearing numbers and dates as per margin, I have the honour to state that, from inquiries which have been made on the subject, it appears that the practice in respect to the mode of exhibition in account of recoveries for pension of the Railway Police is not uniform, the recoveries being credited by some of the Accountants-General while salaries are adjusted net by others. The latter course should, in my opinion, be uniformly adopted.

2. I agree with you in the opinion that fines levied should continue to be credited to Police under Provincial Services.
