Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
23rd June 1874.

No. 194. Read the following circular from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Officiating Comptroller General, to all Accountants-General, dated Calcutta, 8th June 1874, No. 178 :—

As there appears to be some misunderstanding with regard to the calculation of rates of exchange on transactions with London, I have the honour to state that, with the exception of transactions which have been authorized to be adjusted at the fixed rate of 2*s.* per rupee, such as remittances on account of steam postage, &c., exchange should be calculated on classes of transactions noted in the margin, or others of the same nature, at the rate annually fixed for the adjustment of transactions between England and India.

Collection on account of light dues.
Emigration bills.
Pensions to retired members of the Hong-Kong Police.
Subsistence to distressed British Seamen.
Navy bills.
Administrator-General's remittances.
Official Trustee's ditto.
Recoveries of family allotments,
&c., &c., &c.

No. 240.

Copy forwarded to the Secretary to the Government of Madras for information.
