Read again the following letter from G. H. M. BATTEN, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Accountant-General, Bengal, dated 17th January 1870, No. 402:—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 269-E, of the 10th September 1869, and, in reply, to point out that the absentee allowance of a medical officer taking leave in India under the old rules should, if he hold one of the offices the salaries of which were fixed in the General Order of the Military Department, No. 370, dated the 4th April 1867, be regulated by the 9th paragraph of that order, not by the General Order, No. 953, of the 26th November 1864, and that the last-mentioned order never applied to military other than medical officers.

ORDERED that the above be forwarded to the several local Governments and Administrations, to the Comptroller-General, the several Accountants-General (Bengal and Punjab excepted), and the several Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
