Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 3rd August 1874.

Read again letter from Commissioner of Paper Currency Department, dated 4th July 1874, and recorded in G. O., dated 13th July 1874, No. 1160.

No. 1. Read also the following letter from H. G. PRICHARD, Esq., Government Solicitor, Madras, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 27th July 1874, No. 432 :—

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the order of Government, dated 13th July, instant, No. 1160, Financial Department, requesting me to report whether the five Government Promissory Notes which were lodged by the late P. Teagaroya Charriar, Cashier of the Paper Currency Department, as security for the due performance of his duty, can, with safety, be handed over to his widow on her executing a bond.

2. In reply, I have to state, for the information of Government, that having made the necessary inquiries respecting the five Government Promissory Notes in question, I find that they were obtained by the late P. Teagaroya Charry from one A. Soobroya Chetty, the person named and referred to in the letter of the Commissioner of Paper Currency to Government, dated 4th July 1874, No. 267, for the purpose of being lodged as security in the Paper Currency Department, that such Government Promissory Notes are to be delivered back to the said A. Soobroya Chetty on their being received by the widow of the said P. Teagaroya Charry.

3. Under the above circumstances, I am of opinion that the five Government Promissory Notes can safely be handed over to the widow of the late P. Teagaroya Charry for the purpose abovementioned, upon her executing a bond of indemnity with two approved sureties.

No. 2. ORDER THEREON, 3rd August 1874, No. 1280.

The Governor in Council sanctions the return to the widow of the Promissory Notes, and the payment to her of the arrears of pay due to the late Cashier.

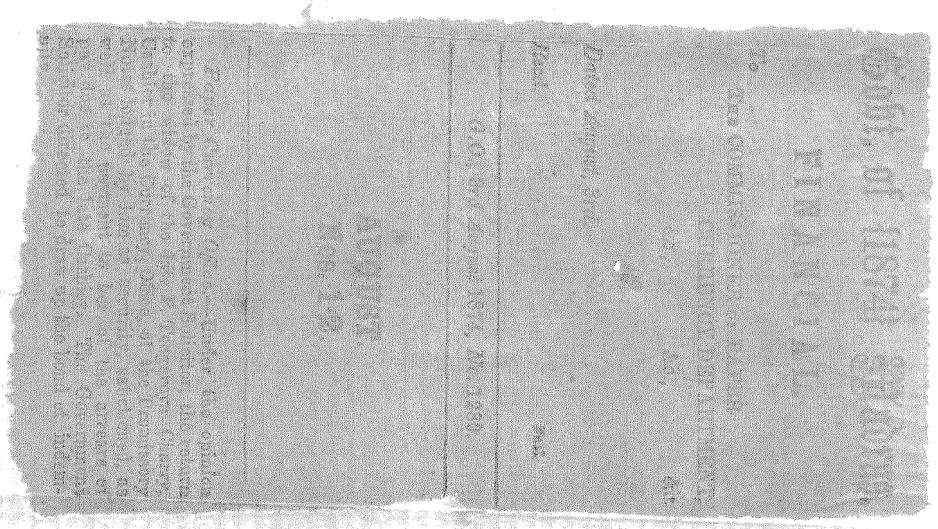

2. The bond will be drawn up by the Government Solicitor.
