No. 127. Read the following Circular from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Officiating Comptroller-General, to all Accountants-General, dated Calcutta, 7th August 1874, No. 187 :—

In communicating to you the following instructions, I have the honor to forward copies (numbered as Circular 16, dated 30th July 1874, in the Treasury Series) for transmission to the different officers of the local Government under existing arrangements, together with copies of slips which may be used for correction of the copies of the bill rules circulated last year.

To 31 g add—

and to subscribers having occasion to make a special remittance to the Secretary.

To 31 l add—

and to the Secretaries of District Savings' Banks transferring a depositor's account to another Bank.

Also insert as 31 s— on the district treasury at Jabalpúr, in favor of the overseer or manager of the Thuggi School of Industry, to all persons having occasion to make payments for articles supplied by the school.

The following note should be inserted after 33 c :—

Military officers in civil employ can obtain transfer receipts under this rule.

As Circle Paymasters are not allowed to grant transfer receipts in exchange for cash, the first condition under paragraph 34 should run—for bonâ fide public purposes.

The following addition should be inserted after paragraph 34 :—

To transfer receipts drawn, under paragraph 34, on the Umritsur Treasury for the pay of officers on leave in Cashmere should be appended a printed slip in the following terms :—

This transfer receipt is payable only to the person named in it or to his authorized agent.

If payment be desired through the agency of a native banker who does not hold a power of attorney, a letter in the following terms must be addressed to the Agent of the Bank of Bengal at Umritsur and sent direct to him (prepaid), and a duplicate of the letter given to the banker or his agent or representative for presentation with the transfer receipt, which must, however, also bear the signature of the payee :—

It must be understood that the concession does not extend beyond the single case noted, either to other treasuries or other bill or other payees.

To paragraph 37 add—

But such assignment can only be made on a treasury under the same local Government ; if the payee's corps have been removed to another province, e. g., from Cawnpore in North-Western Provinces to Seetapore in Oudh, the receipt should be returned to the remitter for cancellation.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 21st August 1874.

In paragraph 38, for the words " if presented after that date payment should be refused," read—if the payee afterwards apply for payment, he should be directed to address the remitter.

After paragraph 38 the following note should be inserted :—

It has happened that the uncurrent receipt returned under this rule has reached the remitter's station after he has left it on furlough ; in this case its amount may be refunded on the receipt of his Commanding Officer signing for the remitter, and also certifying that the remitter's signature could not be obtained in consequence of his being absent on leave from which he would not return for some weeks.

In the original list of the treasuries, a foot-note should have followed the list of the Military Pay and Pension Pay Offices to the effect that no bills can be drawn on any of them ; this prohibition should be clearly understood.
