Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
10th September 1874.

No. 100. Read the following Circular from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Officiating Comptroller-General, to all Accountants-General, dated Calcutta, 26th August 1874, No. 189 :—

I have the honor to draw your attention to 37 Victoria, Chapter 12, which was published in the Gazette of India of first current, and under which the Annuity Funds of the Civil Services of the three Presidencies and their machinery have ceased to exist. For the future, therefore, the allowances of civil servants should be charged net, i. e., after the deduction prescribed in Section 3 of Supplement A of the Civil Pension Code, against the grants concerned in your accounts as well as in those of District Treasuries; and though you must take increased pains to check deductions which are no longer reviewed by the officers of the abolished funds, no separate record will be kept, and no returns can be made, of these deductions either by Treasury Officers or yourself.

2. In the case of covenanted civil servants lent to Municipalities, Native States, or other independent bodies, the single deduction of 20 per cent. on the gross salary will include the 4 per cent. deduction on account of annuity, and will be credited under XVI—" Receipts in aid of Superannuation, Retired and Compassionate Allowances," minor head " Contributions for Pensions and Gratuities." To the same head will be carried the 4 per cent. deducted from such salaries in cases where by reason of the short term of a deputation the full contribution of 20 per cent. is not levied in accordance with Financial Order No. 1871, dated 19th March last, which was published at page 151 of the Gazette of India.

3. Annuities now being paid to Members of the Civil Service from any Treasury under your control should continue to be paid, but the charges should be debited to a new head of " Covenanted Civil Service Pensions " subordinate to 24—" Superannuation, Retired and Compassionate Allowances."

4. Circulars 128, 129, 131 and 138 are hereby cancelled.

5. Orders regarding the balances of the Funds in question will be issued hereafter.
