No. 120. Read the following letter from E. F. HARRISON, Esq., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department (Accounts), to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort William, 29th September 1874, No. 5957 :—

In acknowledging the receipt of your letter, No. 1188, dated the 17th July 1874, I am directed to state that the practice followed in the Government Savings Bank in Calcutta of excluding both Sundays and public holidays from the term "working days" is in accordance with the existing rule, and it should be followed in the other Presidency Savings Banks. The Bellary deposit should have the benefit of this rule.

2. I am at the same time to refer you to the Resolution in this Department, No. 5956, of this day's date, from which it will be seen that, from 1st April 1875, the present rule will be abrogated, and that thereafter interest will not be allowed on deposits for the month in which they are made.

Copy forwarded to the Government of Bombay for information and further orders, and to the Accountants-General, Madras and Bombay, for information.

No. 121. ORDER THEREON, 16th October 1874, No. 1754.

Copy furnished to D. Ramachendra Row in continuation of G.O., dated 21st July 1874, No. 1209.
