2. The estimate comprises two main items, viz., one of Rupees 7,580 for earthwork, etc., connected with the opening of the road, and the other of Rs. 3,260 for building thirty culverts of different sizes on the line as shown in the plan. Besides this, compensation for private lands required for the road will cost Rupees 400.

3. A sum of Rupees 1,800 has been provided for this work in Part I., Statement II.-A of the current year's budget, and further provision will be made for its prosecution in the ensuing year's budget to be shortly submitted.

4. A portion of this line as far as Hannar was traced and opened as a bridle-path at a cost of Rupees 276-9-5* in 1873-74, and the continuation of the same line to Benhatti is now being opened as a bridle-path on an estimate, amounting to Rupees 300, sanctioned in Revenue Board's Proceedings, 2nd December 1873, No. 8,258.

* Revenue Board's Proceedings, 2nd November 1872, No. 2,118, and 16th December 1872, Miscellaneous No. 8,305.

THE estimate for constructing a road from the Colloor Ghaut to Benhatti, three miles and a half long, at a cost of Rupees 10,660, will be submitted for the orders of Government after reference to the Chief Engineer.

2. The reason why the road is to be made is apparent from G. O., dated 30th June 1873, No. 1,687, Public Works Department.
