Read the following telegrams:—

No. 140. To the Secretary of State, India Office, London, dated 30th July 1874.

Please communicate with Mr. Clarke, late Engineer, Calcutta Municipality, ascertaining his terms for coming Madras next cold season and preparing Drainage Scheme of Presidency town.

No. 141. From the Secretary of State, dated 14th August 1874.

Madras drainage. Clarke asks five thousand pounds and expenses on two and-a-half per cent. on cost subject to modification on learning exactly what is required of him.

No. 142. To the Secretary of State, dated 22nd August 1874.

Madras drainage. Tell Clarke consult Major Tulloch, Royal (late Madras) Engineers. Full information may modify Clarke's demands.

No. 143. From the Secretary of State, dated 15th September 1874.

Yours 22nd August. Clarke after consulting Tulloch asks 2,500 pounds and expenses estimated at 500. Would remain three months at Madras.

No. 144. To the Secretary of State, dated 25th September 1874.

Yours 15th September. It should be distinctly understood that this Government would require Mr. Clarke to prepare a complete scheme for drainage of Madras and himself initiate and direct execution, and that his stay at Madras is to be long enough for these purposes. On this understanding what are Mr. Clarke's terms —also at what sum would he estimate the cost of the work?

No. 145. From the Secretary of State, dated 3rd October 1874.

Clarke's terms for remaining three months at Madras three thousand pounds in all. Cannot stay longer, nor estimate until on the spot.

No. 146. To the Secretary of State, dated 6th October 1874.

Your telegram 3rd instant. Please send out Clarke accordingly.

No. 147. To the Government of India, dated 19th August 1874.
