Letter from the Government of Bombay, No. 2376—129-F, dated 19th June 1873.

Resolution.—The Governor-General in Council observes that all the Local Governments agree to the transfer of the charges on account of European vagrants from Imperial to Provincial Services on the terms proposed by the Government of India. The Government of the Punjab alone asks for Rupees 1,000* more than the grant for 1873-74; but no reason is assigned for this demand, and as there were no vagrancy charges in that province in years previous to 1873-74, it is at present impossible to say to what extent the claim may be well-founded.

Demand	3,000

2. The Government of India has already agreed that, if hereafter this charge should develope seriously, the Imperial Government would be prepared to increase the grant if the financial situation should admit of such increase, and unless, therefore, it can be shown that the expenditure on account of European vagrants has seriously increased, no addition can be made to the grant for 1873-74.

3. His Excellency in Council is accordingly pleased to transfer the charge in question to the Provincial Governments, with the following additions to the several Provincial Allotments, being the amounts granted for the service in 1873-74:—

	Rs.
