Read letter from the Inspector of Schools 5th Division No. 760 dated 17 November 1873 recommending the entertainment of a Venkata-ramniah a teacher of considerable experience as an Inspecting Schoolmaster for the Nilgiris as no other suitable person can be found.

The Board under the circumstances resolve to waive their objection to the employment of a Brahmin as Inspecting Schoolmaster. They will therefore be prepared to engage the services of the man recommended by Mr. Dawson to whom they leave the settlement of the Salary provided the Applicant will take Service for any Sum not exceeding 50 Rupees.
