Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
19th February 1874.

Read the following papers:—

No. 152. From J. C. LOCH, Esq., President of the Municipal Commission, Madras, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 2nd October 1873, G. No. 259.

With reference to the Proceedings of Government noted in the margin, I have the honour to forward, herewith, a Budget Estimate of the Charges of this Department against Government for assessment on Government buildings and lands for the official year 1874-75.

Dated 15th April 1862, No. 289, Finl. Dept.

Referred to the Collector of Madras for his remarks.

OOTACAMUND,
8th October 1873.

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON,
Chief Secretary.

No. 253. From A. McC. WEBSTER, Esq., Acting Collector of Madras, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 7th February 1874, No. 17.

With reference to your endorsement of 8th October 1873, on a letter from the President, Municipal Commission, No. 259, of 2nd idem, submitting to Government a Budget Estimate of the Charges of the Municipal Department against Government on account of assessment on six Government buildings for 1874-75, I have the honour to state that the estimate for the first to fourth and sixth buildings appears to be fair. The fifth building is still in course of construction and should not, therefore, be assessed at all.

No. 154. ORDER THEREON, 19th February 1874, No. 279.

The Budget Estimate of the Madras Municipality relating to assessment on Government buildings in the town of Madras, for the year 1874-75, amounts to Rupees 33,159. It exceeds the estimate* for the current year by Rupees 178, six new buildings having been assessed and included in the estimate.

* Rupees 32,981.

2. The Collector of Madras explains that one of these new buildings, "the Printing office, Penitentiary road, Rupees 45," is still under construction, and ought not to be assessed at all.

3. The assessment will be accordingly struck out, and the Budget Estimate reduced from Rupees 33,159 to Rupees 33,114, which amount is passed for inclusion in the Provincial Services Budget.
