No. 74. Read the following letter from R. B. CHAPMAN, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Fort William, 25th February 1874, No. 1307 (Accounts):—

In acknowledging the recept of your letter, No. 4501, dated 27th December 1873, I am directed to state that fractions of the anna should, as far as may be convenient, be avoided; but that it is not desirable that the column for pies should be altogether abolished from the public accounts. If such fractions occur in the earlier stages of the accounts, it is necessary to record them, but in the later stages they may, as is now done, be thrown out with advantage.

Copy of the above letter forwarded to other Local Governments and Administrations, to the Comptroller-General, and the several Accountants-General and Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
