No. 188. Read the following letter from D. BARBOUR, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India in the Financial Department, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort William, 11th April 1874, No. 2261 :—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 219, dated 9th February 1874, requesting the remission of a retrenchment to which Surgeon H. King has become liable by drawing the full pay of the office of Chemical Examiner in Madras, in which he officiated in 1869 and 1870, instead of the allowances admissible to him under rule, and representing, in support of this request, that "the duties of the Assay Master" have devolved on Dr. King without any additional remuneration.

2. In reply, I am desired to say that the allusion to Dr. King's duties as Assay Master is not understood, and that any claim he may have on the Government on account of service rendered in the Assay Department should be separately submitted, but that the Governor-General in Council regrets that he cannot see sufficient reason for exempting Dr. King from liability to refund the amount he has overdrawn. His Excellency in Council is, however, pleased to permit Dr. King to repay the amount in instalments.

Ordered that a copy of the above letter be forwarded to the Accountant-General, Madras, in continuation of letter from this department, No. 4821, dated 31st December 1872.
