Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
17*th January* 1874.

No. 104. Read the following letter from H. R. GRIMES, Esq., Acting Inspector-General of Jails, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Ootacamund, 23rd December 1873, No. 208 :—

Finl. Dept., 13th December 1873, No. 1814.

With reference to the order noted in the margin, I have the honour to request instructions whether the ruling applies to remittances made for the purchase of machinery, raw materials incidental to manufactures, &c., &c., &c., in the Central Jails.

No. 105. ORDER THEREON, 17th January 1874, No. 64.

The rule in question is applicable to remittances of every kind.

2. The Governor in Council is, however, of opinion that the instructions in paragraph 5 to make such remittances through the Government of India cannot have been intended to apply to the Governments of Madras and Bombay, which are in direct communication with the Secretary of State.

3. On this point reference will be made to the Government of India.

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON,
Chief Secretary.

No. 106. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort St. George, 17th January 1874, No. 65.

In their Resolution, dated the 27th November last, No. 3263, the Government of India interdicted the practice of remittances being made to England for public purposes by private bills, the object being that no money should be paid in England on account of the public service in India except through the Secretary of State.

2. It is assumed, however, that the instructions contained in paragraph 5 of the Resolution, viz., that all remittances should be made "invariably through the Government of India," were not intended to apply to the Governments of Madras and Bombay, which are in direct communication with the Secretary of State, and I am directed to inquire whether this view meets the concurrence of the Supreme Government.

Chief Secretary.
