No. 108. Read the following letter from J. B. PENNINGTON, Esq., President of the Municipal Commission, Trichinopoly, to the Honourable D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Trichinopoly, 2nd May 1874, No. 93 :—

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to include so much of the villages of Daranallur and Devadanum as is shown in the accompanying sketch within the limits of this Municipality, in accordance with the resolution of the Commissioners enclosed herein.

2. The village of Daranallur lies close to the town (within a quarter of a mile), and has already benefited much by its favourable position, as it lies close to the old fort ditch which has been filled up, and now forms a magnificent road in its immediate vicinity.

3. A tank has also been completely repaired at considerable expense which is more beneficial to the inhabitants of Daranallur than to the rest of the town.

4. I think, therefore, that the tract of land referred to is very properly chargeable with municipal taxes, and trust that Government will see fit to extend the limits of the town, as requested by the Commissioners.
