I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to move the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India to recover from Colonel G. H. Saxton Rupees 108-11-0, being the gain by exchange on an advance of three months' furlough pay made to that officer on his departure under an interpretation of an order by the Military Department, which the Comptroller-General intimates is incorrect.

The Secretary of State will be addressed accordingly.
