Sir,

With reference to G. O. Financial Department No. 884 dated 20th April 1875, I have the honor to report that the President Municipal Commission of Madras not having paid, early in the current year, the contribution due for the expenses of the institutions therein mentioned for the third quarter of the year 1874/75, as promised in his letter to Government No. 485 dated 3rd March 1875, I requested him to remit the same to the Bank of Madras, as well as the amount due for the fourth quarter of the above year. The Offg. President states in reply, that the 3rd quarter's instalment will, he hopes, be paid in the course of next month & the 4th quarter in the month following, and that the reason for non payment was the delay in passing the Budget Estimates by the Commissioners

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your obedient Servt.
