2. With regard to the Reports of the Madras Municipality for 1872-73 and 1873-74, you stated in your Public letter of the 9th March last, No. 8, that you had frequently called for them, but had not yet received them. As Reports of this nature obviously lose their value by long delay in their submission, I must request that such steps may be taken by your Government as shall ensure greater regularity and promptitude in this respect.
