Promissory Notes.

No. 29. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department, dated Simla, the 19th June 1875, No. 1477 (Accounts):—

Read the following papers on the subject of the renewal of a Government Promissory Note for Rupees 1,000, forfeited to Government for failure in contract by a Public Works contractor named Luchmun Doss, the completeness of whose legal title to the note is now questioned by the Public Debt Office:—

Proceedings in the Public Works Department, Account Abstract (Buildings and Roads), August 1874, Nos. 40 to 42.

Proceedings in the Public Works Department, Account Abstract (Buildings and Roads), February 1875, No. 23.

Letter from the Comptroller-General to the Government Solicitor, No. 606, dated the 29th April 1875, and his reply thereto, No. 459, dated 5th May 1875.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council sanctions the renewal of the Government Promissory Note, and desires that public officers should be reminded that the best precaution which can be taken by them, in the case of Government Promissory Notes tendered as security deposits by contractors and others, if there be any doubt as to the regularity of the endorsements thereon, is to send such notes to the Public Debt Office for renewal.

ORDER.—Ordered, that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the Public Works Department* for information and further orders, and to the Bank of Bengal for information.

* Original papers returned.

Ordered, also, that this Resolution be distributed for information and guidance as follows:—

1. To the several other departments of the Government of India.
2. To the several local Governments and Administrations.
3. To the Comptroller-General and to the several Accountants-General and Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
4. To the several Chiefs of departments administered by the Government of India in the Financial Department.
