No. 80. Read the following Circular from E. F. HARRISON, Esq., Comptroller-General, to all Accountants-General, dated Calcutta, 18th June 1875, No. 208 :—

I have the honor to remind you that, with the exception of certain transactions which are adjusted at rates fixed by special orders, exchange should be calculated on all transactions at the rate annually fixed for the adjustment of transactions between England and India.

Orders have been issued for the adjustment of certain classes at the fixed rate, and it is therefore thought advisable to detail them here.

Emigration bills, Pensions to retired Hong-Kong Policemen, Subsistence to distressed British Seamen, Navy Bills, Remittances of Administrator-General and Official Trustee, Recoveries of family allotments, Wages and effects of deceased British Seamen, Wages of discharged seamen, Stores for Provincial and Local Funds, Stores for ordinary Public Works for Mysore, Hyderabad and other Foreign States. These follow the ordinary rule : all exceptions are detailed in the following paragraph.

2. The only exceptions are—

Collections of Little Basses' Light dues.	Adjusted at Rupees 2.
Steam postage collections.	Do.
Stores for railways constructed from funds furnished by Native States.	The value of the stores sent out in each month will be adjusted at the average rate of the Secretary of State's drawings on India during that month.
Remittances to England on account of the cost of appeals to the Privy Council on behalf of estates under the Court of Wards.	At the lowest rate at which Secretary of State sold bills on the Presidency concerned, according to the latest information.

Certain transactions of Military Funds are also exceptions.

3. The fixed percentages on account of departmental charges, &c., will, of course, be calculated on the cost of the stores so converted. The portion of freight paid in England will also be adjusted at the rate fixed for the stores themselves.

4. Circular 178 is superseded.
