Municipal—Bye-laws.

No. 201. Read the following letter from W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., President of the Municipal Commissions, North Arcot, to the Honorable D. F. CARMICHAEL, Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Palmanair, 8th July 1875, No. 45:—

I have the honor to forward, for the sanction of Government, a set of bye-laws, similar to those passed for the Vellore Municipality, proposed by the Wallajapett Commissioners to regulate the working of the slaughter-house lately erected by the Municipality.

Draft Rules for the Municipal Slaughter-house at Wallajapett.

A Committee, composed of the Vice-President and two Commissioners, will supervise the general working of the slaughter-house.

The establishment to consist of an Inspector.

The slaughter-house to be cleaned by the scavenger establishment.

The duty of the Inspector will be to examine all animals prior to their being slaughtered, rejecting such as he may deem unfit for food; to affix a mark on all carcasses prior to their removal from the slaughter-house; to collect all fees; and to supervise the slaughter-house generally.

A sweeper of the scavenger's establishment is to be under the orders of the Inspector, and to keep the carcass-room and slaughter-house clean.

The slaughter-house is to be whitewashed internally and externally once in every four months.

Bye-laws.

1. The slaughter-house will be open for the killing of sheep and goats from 5 A.M. to 9 A.M. and from 2 P.M. to 6 P.M.

2. All sheep and goats killed for sale within the Municipal limits of Wallaja Town shall be slaughtered at the Municipal slaughter-house only.

3. A fee of 2 Pies shall be paid to the Municipality for every animal slaughtered (Section 124, Towns Improvement Act, 1871).

4. No carcass is to be removed from the slaughter-house until the mark of the Inspector has been affixed thereon.

5. The Municipal mark placed on each carcass shall be retained by the retailer until the whole carcass has been disposed of.

6. Meat of any description removed from the slaughter-house shall not be exposed to view during removal.

7. The offal of animals slaughtered to be considered the property of the butchers provided the same is removed off the premises at once.

8. Any one guilty of a breach of the foregoing bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rupees 10 for each offence.

(Signed) C. VENKATAKISTNA MOODELLIAR,
Vice-President.

No. 202. ORDER THEREON, 30th July 1875, No. 1570.

The Governor in Council approves and sanctions the bye-laws proposed for regulating the working of the slaughter-house established in the Wallajapett Municipality.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
30th July 1875.

2. The bye-laws will be published in the District Gazette for one month before they are brought into force.
