Stationery—Depot.

No. 128. Read the following letter from Mr. J. T. GREATOREX, Assistant Pay Examiner, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort St. George, 23rd January 1875 :—

Adverting to the Order of Government in the Public Department, dated 14th May 1872, No. 641, I beg to report that I have examined the Stock of the Stationery Depôt remaining on the 1st November 1874.

2. The Statement of "Remains," furnished to me by the Officiating Inspector-General of Ordnance and Magazines on the 20th November 1874, is herewith forwarded, in which I have entered in the column left for that purpose the quantity of stock found in the Depôt.

3. I also submit a statement of surplus and deficient articles.

4. I think it my duty to bring to notice that no issues have been made of any of the Books and Tracts entered in my statement during the three years in which I have taken stock, as it may perhaps be considered desirable that they should be disposed of, should it be found, as appears to be the case, that they are not required by Schools or Regiments.

No. 129. ORDER THEREON, 28th January 1875, No. 169.

The Stock in the Stationery Depôt on the 1st November 1874 appears, with the few trivial exceptions noted, to be correct.

2. The statements now received will be sent to the Inspector-General of Ordnance and Magazines, who will, in communication with the Adjutant-General of the Army, report whether there is any prospect of the "Books and Tracts" being required for distribution to the Army. If not required such books as are likely to find a sale in the Educational Department may be transferred to the Curator of the Government Depôt at a fair valuation, and the remainder be sold by public auction and the Depôt relieved of the accumulated stock.

3. Rupees 200 will be paid to Mr. Greatorex as remuneration for his services.

4. On the removal of the Stationery Depôt to the Office of the Superintendent of Stamps, other arrangements may be found necessary regarding stock-taking. The Superintendent of Stamps and Stationery will report to Government on the subject prior to the next annual stock-taking.
