No. 95. Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India.

Judicial.
No. 6.

INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
22nd April 1875.

MY LORD,—The despatch of your Excellency in Council, dated 5th March, No. 7 of 1875, relative to the leave of absence of the Hon. Mr. Justice Holloway, has been considered by me in Council.

2. On the general subject of the despatch of your Lordship in Council, I would refer you to my despatch of the 8th April, No. 15, to the address of the Government of India.

3. With respect to your specific request, in the despatch under reply, that a patent of precedence should be granted to Mr. Justice Holloway as Senior Puisne Judge of the High Court of Madras, I would remark that, with a full appreciation of the merits and services of that officer, I should not, in the event of his reappointment, feel myself at liberty to move Her Majesty the Queen to confer a distinction, which has never yet been granted in India, and very seldom in England.

I have, &c.,

Read the following despatch from the Secretary of State for India, to the Government of India, dated 8th April, 1875, No. 15.

The despatch* of your Excellency in Council, dated 12th February, No. 62 of 1875, relative to the furlough of the Hon. W. Holloway, a Puisne Judge of the High Court at Madras, has been considered by me in Council.

* Financial Department.

2. I entirely concur with your Excellency in Council in considering that no sufficient grounds have been shown for a modification of the furlough rules as applicable to Civilian Judges of the High Courts.

3. I am also of opinion that a system of acting appointments in the High Courts is one not to be encouraged, and should only be resorted to under circumstances of unquestionable necessity.

Copy forwarded to the Government of Madras, with reference to the letter from the Government of India, in the Financial Department, No. 928, dated 12th

February 1875. Copy also forwarded to the Home Department for information, and for the issue of further orders in respect of paragraph 3.
