Budget.

No. 98. Read the following letter from R. P. CAMPBELL, Esq., Magistrate of Police, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 1st October 1875, No. 113:—

I have the honor to forward, herewith, Budget Estimates of the Police Courts for the Town of Madras for the year ending 31st March 1877. A duplicate has been forwarded to the Accountant-General.

2. I beg to state that the sum of Rupees 212, hitherto sanctioned on account of the contingencies of this Court, is found inadequate to meet the payments of subsistence allowance for vagrants, under Act IX. of 1874, which expenditure since of late is of frequent occurrence. I therefore request that the additional sum of Rupees 50 now included under the head of "Contingencies" for the year 1876-77 may be retained and sanctioned.

3. As regards the sum of Rupees 100 asked for the purchase of furniture, I beg to state that great inconvenience is felt for the want of a press or almirah for the custody of records, which are now daily increasing, and as none of the almirahs in the office could be spared, I request that that sum may also be included in the Budget grant and sanctioned.

No. 99. ORDER THEREON, 11th October 1875, No. 2003.

The Budget Estimate of Receipts of the Magisterial Courts in the Town of Madras for 1876-77 amounts to Rupees 33,162, against Rupees 35,085, the actuals for 1874-75, and Rupees 32,000, the estimate for 1875-76. It is stated that the estimate of probable receipts in the Town Police Court for 1876-77 has been based on the actuals of the past three years, but there has been nothing urged to show why the actuals* for 1874-75, which exceed the estimate† for 1876-77 by about Rupees 2,500, is not likely to be realized in 1876-77. In the absence of explanation on this point, the Governor in Council is of opinion that the estimate of receipts for the Town Police may be taken at Rupees 18,000, and that of the Egmore Court at Rupees 17,000, the aggregate being fixed at Rupees 35,000.

† Rupees 16,085.

2. The Charges are estimated at Rupees 62,234. They exceed the expenditure incurred in 1874-75 by Rupees 2,564, and the current year's grant by Rupees 1,734. The excess over the grant arises from the addition of Rupees 1,584, on account of an increase of Rupees 132 per mensem, for the establishment in the Town Court, which received the sanction of the Government of India in their Financial Resolution, dated 30th January 1875, No. 628; and of Rupees 50 and Rupees 100, respectively, on account of subsistence allowance paid to vagrants under Act IX. of 1874, and for the purchase of an almirah for the custody of records.

Sir

I have the honor to forward herewith Budget Estimates of the Police Courts for the Town of Madras for the year ending 31st March 1877. A Duplicate has been forwarded to the Accountant General.

I beg to state that the sum of Rupees 212 — hitherto sanctioned on account of the Contingencies of this Court, is found inadequate to meet the payments of Subsistence allowance for Vagrants, under Act IX of 1874; which

* This Estimate falls short of actuals of 1874/75 by about Rs. 2500. This was arrived at, by taking the average of the actuals of the three preceding years as the Estimate for 1876/77, in keeping with the system in the Egmore Police Court.
