No. 119. Read the following letter from J. A. BOURDILLON, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, (Accounts), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Simla, 30th September 1875, No. 3324 :—

With reference to the correspondence ending with Mr. James' letter, No. 2448, dated the 2nd August 1875, regarding the mode of charging for new instruments supplied by the Medical Store Department to the Civil Department, and for the repair of old ones, I am directed to state that the Governor-General in Council is pleased to prescribe the following rules on the subject :—

1*st.*—The charge for new instruments to be, as at present, the invoice value plus 10 per cent.

2*nd.*—No allowance to be made to the Civil Department for the value of instruments returned into store as useless and unserviceable, and no charge to be made to the Civil Department for the repair of instruments returned for repair and not brought on to the books of the Medical Store Department. But when any new articles are supplied from stores to complete sets, the invoice value plus 10 per cent. to be charged for such articles.

3*rd.*—When instruments returned into store on returning indent are found fit for repair and re-issue, credit to be given for them to the Civil Department at two-thirds of the invoice value. The charge for such instruments on re-issue to the Civil Department to be the sum thus allowed for them, plus 10 per cent.

Copy forwarded to the Military Department for information and for the issue of such further orders as may be deemed necessary.

Copy also forwarded to the Accountant-General, Bombay, for information and guidance.

Copy to the Government of Madras and the Accountant-General, Madras; and copy to the Comptroller-General.
