Indian Tariff Act.

No. 127. Read the following letter from R. H. HOLLINGBERY, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 29th September 1875, No. 3616 :—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1717, dated 26th August 1875, forwarding a memorial, dated 17th August, from the Madras Trades Association, regarding the enhanced rates of import duty imposed on spirit, wines, and liqueurs by the Tariff Act, 1875.

2. As the Government of Madras are aware, the question has already been considered by His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, and the Association will have doubtless seen from Financial Notification, No. 3180, dated 3rd September 1875, that the increased rate of duty is not to be levied on wine, spirit, or liqueur shipped in a vessel which sailed for British India on or before the 15th August 1875, and imported at such port, was sold, or that a contract for the delivery of the same was concluded on or before the 5th day of August 1875.

3. A copy of this communication may be forwarded for the information of the Trades Association, Madras, with the intimation that the Governor-General in Council regrets that he cannot make any further concession on this matter.
