No. 134. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Ootacamund, 14th October 1875, No. 2032.

Agreeably to Section 18, paragraph 3, Civil Leave Code, I am directed by the Governor in Council to report the following grant of a few days extra subsidiary leave.

2. Mr. J. G. Thompson, District and Session Judge, Ganjam, obtained two years' furlough with thirty days' subsidiary leave, and made over charge of his Court to his successor on the 27th August. He left India 4th October, not having succeeded in reaching Bombay till the 2nd idem. It is not known when he left his station, but he has certified that the surf (meaning the surf at Gopalpore, where the British India Steam Navigation Company's Coasting steamers touch) was impassable for two weeks together.

3. His subsidiary leave has accordingly been extended from 27th September to 4th instant.

(Signed) D. F. CARMICHAEL,
Officiating Chief Secretary.
