The proposal of a Fishery Bill has been entrusted in the Rev. Dept. to the Board of Revenue have been asked to prepare such a Bill. The President Mr. C. Nicholson requested this Office to attend the Rev. Board.

I see that the Wds. do not consider it necessary to include tanks in the proposed Bill (para 4, Revd. Proc. 1864/11 24 July 1873) but I have the honor to state that the Municipality has received numerous petitions from the inhabitants of the Municipality praying that the Municipality may be empowered to lease out the fishery in the tanks within the Municipality for the benefit of the Municipality. The President Mr. C. Nicholson requested this Office to attend the Rev. Board. M.J. 20.11

With reference to the resolution passed by the Municipal Commissioners Trichinopoly at a meeting held on the 10th instant on the Board Proceedings No. 2840 dated 12th October 1875 regarding the draft fishery Bill, I have the honor to request that the Government will inform me whether the proposed Bill would include small tanks such as there are in this Municipality, or not
