Leave and Allowances.

Read the undermentioned papers:—

Resolution of the Government of India, in this department, No. 3489, dated the 16th October 1872, ruling "that no officer is entitled to pay or allowances for any time he may spend beyond the limits of his jurisdiction save with the sanction of the Government which he serves, and that the confirmation of the Government of India is required to such sanction, when it involves any increase of expenditure beyond what would have been incurred if the officer had remained within his jurisdiction."

Resolution of the Government of India, in this department, No. 1149, dated the 20th February 1873, extending "to all similar cases the operation of Home Department Resolution, No. 629, dated 12th November 1872, ruling that 'it will be within the discretion of the Local Government to direct that (for the purpose of determining the acting allowances of a substitute) the absence of a police officer from his district on the summons of a criminal court or court-martial shall be treated as absence on special duty.'"

Letter from the Officiating Secretary to the Government of the North-Western Provinces, No. 1129-A, dated the 27th August 1875, and its enclosures, soliciting sanction to the payment of the salary, amounting to Rupees 685-14-7, of Mr. J. W. Williams, District Superintendent of Police, Muzaffarnagar, for the period from the 31st March to the 28th April 1875, during which he was employed "on special duty in connection with the Landhowra case."

RESOLUTION.—In supersession of the Resolutions of October 1872, and February 1873, quoted above, the Honorable the President in Council is pleased to rule that an officer may draw pay and allowances for any time that he may spend beyond the limits of his jurisdiction with the sanction of the Government which he serves, and that such sanction does not require the confirmation of the Government of India, unless it involves extra expenditure chargeable to Imperial Revenues.

2. This Resolution may be applied retrospectively to Mr. Williams' case.

ORDERED that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the other Departments of the Government of India, to all Local Governments, to the Comptroller-General, to all Accountants-General, and to Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge; and that a copy of the letter from the Officiating Secretary to the Government of the North-Western Provinces, No. 1129-A, dated the 27th August 1875, and its enclosures, be forwarded to the Home Department.
