No. 28. Read the following letter from E. F. HARRISON, Esq., Comptroller-General, to all Accountants-General, dated Calcutta, 20th November 1875, Circular No. 220 (Bill Rules):—

In sending you the following instructions, I have the honor to enclose —— spare copies for transmission to district and other officers of the local Government under the arrangement made in my letter, No. 1557, dated 3rd February 1871.

From E. F. HARRISON, Esq., Comptroller-General, to the $\frac{\text{Collector}}{\text{Deputy Commissioner}}$ of——, dated 20th November 1875, Circular No. 30.

Under paragraph 40 of the Bill Rules, the Paymaster of a European Regiment can obtain transfer receipts for public purposes in part of any of the three cheques which he is authorized to draw, and some Treasury Officers have held him to be unable to claim any in exchange for cash under paragraph 41*h*. It is represented that such refusals may cause great inconvenience when, by reason of the absence of a detachment, remittances are necessary more than thrice in one month, and accordingly, to remove doubts, I beg to inform you that the Paymasters of European Regiments who have occasion to make remittances to detachments of their own corps may, if necessary, obtain transfer receipts in exchange for cash, on certifying the reason of their wanting such receipts in compliance with the note following rule 31*a*. Correcting slips are enclosed.

NOTE to Bill Rules, Paragraph 40.

When a detachment of a European Regiment is serving at a distance from its head-quarters, the Regimental Paymaster may obtain transfer receipts in exchange for cash on the treasury of the district in which the detachment is serving, but will in his application (see note following paragraph 31*a*) state that the remittance is being made to a detachment of the corps in urgent want of funds at the station drawn on.
