INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
11*th November* 1875.

SIR,—The despatch of your Excellency in Council, dated 24th of September, No. 19 (Financial) of 1875, relative to the shipments of rice made through Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co. of Madras to Calcutta during the late famine in Bengal, has been considered by me in Council.

2. The amicable settlement of this account is satisfactory, and I concur with your Excellency in Council in considering that Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co. rendered good service by their exertions in supplying rice to Calcutta during the late famine.

I have, &c.,
