Rules for Travelling Allowances.

No. 135. Read the following:—

Proposed Rules for the grant of travelling allowances to officers in Civil employ for journeys by sea or on a river.

I.—A free passage, or refund of passage-money, may be granted, at the following rates, to a public servant in the Civil Departments who is not in receipt of permanent travelling allowance when travelling by sea or in a river steamer, if he would be entitled to draw travelling allowance if he were travelling on land.

II.—For the purposes of these rules, officers in Civil employ are divided into three classes—

1*st.*—Covenanted Civil Servants, Commissioned Military Officers, Chaplains, and Uncovenanted Officers with rank not lower than that of Extra Assistant Commissioner, Deputy Magistrate or Deputy Collector.

2*nd.*—Warrant Officers, Non-commissioned Military Officers, Military Medical Subordinates, European Soldiers, and Uncovenanted Servants in superior service within the meaning of Section 39 of the Civil Pension Code other than those included in the first class.

3*rd.*—All other officers.

III.—An officer of the first class is entitled—

(a) to free passage for himself, or refund of passage-money at first class rates.

(b) to free passage, or refund of passage-money at lowest class rates, for two servants, or, if his salary is not less than Rupees 1,000 a-month, for three servants.

(c) to be reimbursed the freight of such horses and tents as he would have been entitled to carry at the public expense, had he been travelling by railway.

IV.—An officer of the second class is entitled—

(a) to a free passage for himself, or refund of passage-money at middle or second class rates.

(b) to a free passage, or refund of passage-money at lowest class rates, for one servant.

V.—An officer of the third class is entitled—to a free passage for himself, or refund of passage-money at lowest or third class rates.

VI.—If board is provided on the vessel, table-money is recovered from an officer of the first class at the following rates for every day on which he dines on board:—

(a) If the board includes wines and liquors,—three-tenths of salary, up to a maximum of Rupees 8.

(b) If the board does not include wines and liquors,—three-twentieths of salary, up to a maximum of Rupees 4.

Registrar, Financial Dept.

Table-money is not recovered from a native of India compelled by caste or other scruples to make separate arrangements for his board.

VII.—Table-money is not recovered from officers of the second and third classes; and, if such an officer is obliged to make private arrangements for board, he is entitled to table-money, at the rate of three-tenths of salary, but not exceeding Rupees 3 and not less than 4 Annas for every day on which he dines on board.

VIII.—Certain officers are, under special rules, entitled to convey their families at public expense. Each member of the family of such an officer, if above six years of age, is subject to the same rules and rates as the officer himself; members of his family under six years of age come under these rules at half rates. But a passage will not be provided for more servants than the officer may take with himself under these rules when travelling alone.
