ACCOUNTS.

No. 27. Read the following letter from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Officiating Comptroller-General, to all Accountants-General, dated Calcutta, 3rd December 1874 (Circular No. 192):—

I have the honor to forward, for distribution, sundry additions which are found necessary in the Bill Rules (Circular No. 144).

Bills with the Straits Settlements will be very rare, and, though District Officers will exhibit them as drawn by, or on, Treasuries under the Government of India, you will, of course, exhibit them only in the Straits Settlements' section of your accounts (see enclosure to Circular No. 97, p. 38).

I take this opportunity of mentioning two small alterations which may be made in the forms appended to my Circular No. 144. In Form E. the column for Premium charged may be placed after, instead of before, that for Daily total, and in the heading of Form K. the words cashed during the month of may be changed to cashed from ——— to ———, so as to agree with the heading of Form I.

To follow Para. 33.

Local cesses on land to be paid in another district may be remitted in the same way as land revenue; but ordinarily one receipt only, for all cesses and all land revenue together payable on all his lands, will be granted to one remitter on account of each periodical instalment.

To follow Para. 34.

The privilege remittances of Military Officers are limited to the pay and allowances of Regimental Officers of their rank, with the single exception of officers on the Headquarter's Staff of the Army, who may remit to the extent of their monthly pay and allowances including Staff salary.
