No. 207. Read the following letter from R. H. HOLLINGBERY, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort William, 6th February 1875, No. 851 :—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1455, dated the 28th August 1874, forwarding copy of Proceedings regarding the transfer of the Stationery Depôt from the Fort to the Office of the Superintendent of Stamps, and the grant to that Officer for the extra duty of an allowance of Rupees 100 a month now drawn by the Commissary of Ordnance.

2. In reply, I am to request that you will be good enough, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, to explain whether it is necessary permanently to raise the pay of the appointment, seeing that the increase from Rupees 1,000 to Rupees 1,100 a month, being beyond the competence of the local Government to grant, will require the sanction of the Secretary of State.

3. I am to add that, in the opinion of the Governor-General in Council, a successor to the office should not receive a higher pay than Rupees 1,000, which is enough for the superintendence of both Stamps and Stationery.

No. 208. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort St. George, 16th February 1875, No. 344.

In reply to your letter, dated 6th February 1875, No. 851, Financial Department, I am directed to state that as the sum of 1,000 Rupees was some years ago passed as the proper salary for the Superintendent of Stamps, it appears to the Governor in Council that, with the accession of the charge of the Stationery, the small salary of Rupees 100, which has so long been allowed to the Superintending Officer of the Stationery Department, should not be refused.

2. But if the Government of India insist on the contrary view, the 100 Rupees can be considered as limited to the present Superintendent of Stamps, who, certainly, should not have a fresh set of duties thrown on him without remuneration.
