Read the following Telegram from the Government of India, dated 3rd February 1875:—

Have Budgets been despatched, they are most urgently required.

Copy of telegram communicated to the Financial Department, with request that as the Provincial, Local Fund, and Municipal Public Works Budgets of 1875-76 are due at the Government of India Office by the 15th February, it is desirable that early intimation be given of the intended assignment of Provincial Funds for Public Works purposes, both for separate outlay and as grants-in-aid of Local Funds. Also that copies of the Local Fund and Municipal Budgets be supplied for compilation at an early date. It is remarked that copies of the Municipal Budgets of 1874-75, over-due nearly a year, have not yet been supplied.
