Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
5th March 1875.

Pensions and Gratuities.

No. 68. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, dated Fort William, 28th November 1874, No. 6902 (Circular):—

Pensions and Gratuities.

With reference to the circular by the Government of India, in the Financial Department, No. 3897, dated 31st October 1873, and the replies to it, regarding certain proposals for the re-employment of persons thrown out of employ, but who are still capable of useful service, the Governor-General in Council desires that each Local Government will furnish the Government of India, in the Financial Department, with a statement of all persons who were, on the 1st January 1874, in receipt of compensation pensions of more than Rupees 10 a-month, who have been pensioned between the 1st January 1870 and 31st December 1873, and who are still fit and qualified for duty. His Excellency in Council further desires that, at the end of the present year, each Local Government will submit to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, a statement showing the number of new pensions of a similar class granted during the year, and also the number of pensioners re-employed during the same period.
