ASSAY.

No. 101. Read the following letter from J. A. BOURDILLON, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort William, 30th December 1874, No. 7433 :—

With reference to your letter, No. 1245, dated the 29th July 1874, recommending the grant to Dr. King, Chemical Examiner at Madras, of some remuneration on account of the services rendered by him in the Assay Department, I am directed to state that, in the opinion of the Governor-General in Council, the Assay work performed in Madras is not sufficient to justify the grant of extra remuneration for it, but, as Dr. King appears to have had some ground for expecting extra remuneration, His Excellency in Council is pleased to sanction the grant to him of Rupees 50 per mensem, from the 29th May 1871, the date on which he assumed charge of the Assay Office to the end of the current month.

2. It should also be understood that the duty of assaying silver for coinage will in future be a part of the regular duties of the Chemical Examiner at Madras.

Copy of the above forwarded to the Accountant-General, Madras, in continuation of No. 6454, dated the 5th November 1874.

No. 102. ORDER THEREON, 13th January 1875, No. 61.

Copy furnished to the Chemical Examiner, with reference to G.O., dated 29th July 1874, No. 1244.

2. The Accountant-General will disburse the allowance sanctioned by the Government of India to Dr. King.

3. The Surgeon-General, Indian Medical Department, will note the condition prescribed in paragraph 2.
