Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 2nd April 1875.

Local Funds—Loan.

No. 27. Read the following letter from R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort St George, 18th March 1875, No. 721 :—

Book Department.

With reference to G.O., Financial Department, No. 341, dated 21st March 1872, I have the honor to report that out of the loan of Rupees 25,000 to the Chatterpore Local Fund Circle, Rupees 5,000 were repaid in October 1873, and the balance of Rupees 20,000 now stands in the books of this office under Imperial Services. The Collector has reported that under G.O., Financial Department, No. 385 of 7th March 1874, paragraph 3, no further recovery will be made, and I beg to inquire whether the outstanding may be adjusted by crediting Imperial Services and debiting Provincial Services in the accounts for 1874-75.

No. 28. ORDER THEREON, 2nd April 1875, No. 711.

The Accountant-General will credit Imperial and debit Provincial with an annual instalment of Rupees 5,000 for four years on this account, beginning with the year 1874-75 and ending 1877-78.

2. This will adjust the account in accordance with the terms conceded by Government of India in the order granting the advance.

That

I do not think a case is made out for turning the charge an Imperial fund, but an adjustment of the loan to Provincial and Imperial may be spread over the term originally assigned in loan and only Rs 5000 credited to Imperial fund for 1874-75.
