No. 115. Read the following letter from R. B. CHAPMAN, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Secretary to the Government of the Punjab, dated Fort William, 31st December 1874, No. 7553 (Accounts):—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1807, dated 16th November 1874, inquiring whether, with reference to paragraph 21 of Financial Resolution, No. 2189, dated 20th April 1865, it is considered obligatory upon one local Government to employ the agency of another in effecting the adjustment of such petty transactions as the payment for a newspaper, &c.

2. In reply, I am directed to observe that the trouble of requiring an order of a trifling character from one Government to be executed by another would probably be found to be greater than arranging for its execution direct, and paying by a remittance transfer receipt, the amount of which should be included in the ordinary contingent bill of the office incurring the charge. The Governor-General in Council would not, therefore, enjoin the former practice as one to be invariably followed.

Copy of the foregoing letter to the Government of the Punjab forwarded to the other local Governments and Administrations, the Comptroller-General,* the several Accountants-General, and the several Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.

(By order, &c.)

FORT WILLIAM, the 31*st December* 1874.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 1807, dated 16th November 1874, enquiring whether, with reference to paragraph 21 of Financial Resolution No. 2189, dated 20th April 1865, it is considered obligatory upon one local Government to employ the agency of another in effecting the adjustment of such petty transactions as the payment for a newspaper, &c.

2. In reply I am directed to observe that the trouble of requiring an order of a trifling character from one Government to be executed by another would probably be found to be greater than arranging for its execution direct, and paying by a remittance transfer receipt, the amount of which should be included in the ordinary contingent bill of the office incurring the charge. The Governor General in Council would not therefore enjoin the former practice as one to be invariably followed.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,
