2. Out of the uninvested cash balance of the 8 per cent. Fund above shown as actually at the credit of the Fund on the 31st March 1874, Rupees 6,00,000 have been since invested in 4 per cent. Non-Transferable Treasury Notes which will bear the special rate of interest, viz., 8 per cent.

3. It will be observed, on comparing the present with the last annual account, that the invested capital of the 4 per cent. Fund is less by a lakh of Rupees in the former. The cash balance which was actually at the credit of the 4 per cent. Fund in this country on 31st March 1874 was Rupees 21,826-13-10 but as this was not sufficient to meet its demands, the Trustees were compelled to sell bonds belonging to this Fund to the value of Rupees 1,00,000, which sum added to the balance amounts to Rupees 1,21,826-13-10; and after deducting the amount which was due to Messrs. Coutts and Co. on the 31st March 1874, viz, Rupees 79,526-5-0, the cash balance, as shown at the credit of the Fund in the account now submitted, is Rupees 42,300-8-10. The bonds which were bought at a discount, were sold at a premium, and the amount gained will appear in the next year's account. The proceeds of the bonds bear interest in the Government Treasury at 4 per cent.

4. The assets of the 4 per cent. Fund have been declining since 1870, while the charges have been continually increasing. The Trustees believe this to be due to too large a proportion of the charge for new rule pensions having been debited to the new Fund. The division (at one-fourth to the 8 per cent., and three-fourths to the 4 per cent. Funds) was made under the advice of the Actuary, Mr. S. Brown, and the question is one of those recently referred to him for re-consideration. The debits will probably have to be adjusted hereafter by re-writing the accounts; but meanwhile the Fund gains by its more valuable capital, that bearing interest at 8 per cent., being saved. This course, however, is obviously unfair to the Government; but no change of system can be made, until the matter is fully discussed.

5. Referring to para. 9 of the Report to the last Meeting, the Trustees have to state that Mr. Brown's report on the reference which has been made to him, reached them by the mail which arrived at Madras on the 19th Instant. It has been sent to be printed, and the new Trustees will doubtless lose no time in taking it into consideration.

6. Since the last Meeting the following gentlemen have become Subscribers to the Fund under their Covenants with the Government:—

Mr. W. J. Tate.
" J. W. Bird.
" G. W. Fawcett.—and
" P. W. Moore.

7. The undermentioned gentlemen have received advances of passage money since the date of the last report on the usual terms.

8. Messrs. J. H. Nelson and T. Von Donop Hardinge, have commenced to liquidate their debts to the Fund.

9. Messrs. F. Lushington, J. H. Garstin and J. F. Snaith have completed the payment of their debts.

10. The following lapses among Annuitants have occurred :—

Mrs. L. A. Bushby—Died on the 23rd March 1874.

Mr. L. A. J. Daniell—Superannuated on the 8th March 1874. } The usual donation was " H. B. Woodgate—Do. on the 17th March 1874. } paid in each case.
Miss F. B. M. Bruere—Married on the 8th September 1874.

Mr. W. A. Silver—Superannuated on the 7th June 1874. } The usual donation will
" C. H. Gostling—Do. on the 11th November 1874. } be paid hereafter.

11. In consequence of the death of Mrs. E. M. Wayte on the 22nd January 1865 and Mrs. A. Keene on the 10th August 1871, the Trustees have sanctioned an increase in the annuities of Misses F. D. and C. C. Wayte, the daughters of the late Mr. W. Wayte; and of Misses J. A. and K. Keene, the daughters of the late Mr. H. G. Keene, all annuitants on the Fund under the new rules, the benefits of which they purchased. In the cases of the Misses Keene the sum calculated by the Actuary, including the value of the contingent increase of £ 25 per annum, was paid prior to Mrs. Keene's death; but the increase which became due on that event was not claimed owing to ignorance, and the arrears have been paid to the Misses Keene. The case of the Misses Wayte was peculiar. The Actuary had calculated the sum to be paid by them while their mother was still alive and with reference to that fact; but they were not admitted to pension, nor was the amount paid, till after her death. Consequently the calculation ought to have been revised; and instead of £ 2,622-4-0 they should have paid £ 2,985-10-0, a difference of £ 363-6-0. On the other hand they would have been entitled to an additional £ 25 a year each from the date of admission, viz, 1st May 1867; and on calculating interest as required by the rules at 5 per cent. on both sides, there appeared a balance of £10-13-11 against them. The Trustees, however, did not think this balance of interest should be demanded from them inasmuch as the Fund would have realized only 4 per cent. on the money; and they have authorized the Misses Wayte's admission to the increased annuities from 1st January 1875 without further payment.

12. The Trustees have been requested by a Mr. A. Sewell, cousin of Miss E. Sewell, an annuitant under the old rules, to allow her pension to be drawn by Mrs. St. Aubyn, a private friend of Miss Sewell's of many years' standing. Miss Sewell is an inmate of a lunatic Asylum, and as the Trustees did not wish to put her estate to the expense of procuring an Order in Chancery appointing Mrs. St. Aubyn to act as guardian, they have instructed Messrs. Coutts and Co. to pay Miss Sewell's pension to Mrs. St. Aubyn on condition of her executing a Bond for the appropriation of the pension to Miss Sewell's maintenance and support, making the usual half yearly declarations, and producing an annual certificate as to Miss Sewell's state from the Surgeon who attends upon her in the Asylum.

13. The Trustees have to report that the gentlemen whose names are given in the margin, being dead, the amounts due to and by them on account of advances of passage money, and standing unadjusted in the books of the Fund, will be carried to the head of "Profit and Loss."

14. The Trustees have received a petition from the widow of P. Parthasarathy, late ... Mutchy in the Civil Fund Office, who died on the 9th October 1874, praying that a pension may be made for her subsistence as she has been left in circumstances of great distress; and they recommend that in consideration of the long service of 27 years of the late Mutchy, a pension of (2) two Rupees per month may be conferred upon the widow for her life, commencing from the date of the late Mutchy's death.
