Local Funds--Education.

No. 127. Read the following letter from W. D. HORSLEY, Esq., President of the Local Fund Boards, Cuddapah, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Cuddapah, 25th March 1875, No. 174:—

I have the honor to report that, on G.O., Financial Department, 4th December 1873, No. 1763, the Local Fund Board, Cuddapah Circle, requested Mr. Fortey, the sole survivor of the Barnett Scholarship trust, to move the High Court to allow the accumulated funds under the deed of the Barnett trust to be transferred to the Local Fund Board for the use of Elementary Education in the Pullampett Taluq, as the Pullampett School having ceased to exist, no scholarship could be given to any of its boys.

2. Mr. Fortey asked the opinion of the Government Solicitor, and Mr. Prichard states "that the funds belonging to the Barnett Scholarship are no longer vested in the original trustees, but in the Secretary of State for India in Council , and consequently that any action which may be necessary in the matter must be taken by the Government on behalf of the Secretary of State."

3. The facts are these: Mr. Barnett made a present of a Government promissory note of Rupees 1,000 to a school at Pullampett town, the interest of which sum was to be given to the best scholar in that school. The school ceased to exist, and the interest is lying idle in the Accountant-General's hands. The Local Fund Board asked to be allowed to take over the principal and interest and to utilize it towards the furtherance of education in the Pullampett Taluq. Mr. Fortey, the sole surviving trustee, had no objection, and Mr. Barnett, who was also asked, agreed. The question remained whether a trust so made could be altered even if the original donor and the surviving trustee consented. In paragraph 4 of the Government Pleader's opinion quoted in G.O., Financial Department, 4th December 1873, No. 1763, it was pointed out how an application might be made to the High Court to utilize the funds. The Government Solicitor now states that such application must be made by Government.

4. I have the honor to request, therefore, that such application may be made, and to enclose a draft of the new scheme for the application of the trust funds of which the Local Fund Board, Cuddapah Circle, has approved.

No. 128. ORDER THEREON, 10th April 1875, No. 808.

The papers will be forwarded to the Government Solicitor, in view to the necessary application being made to the High Court under Section 43 of Act XXVIII. of 1866.
