of the 1874-5, & of the 1875-6: but in either case the deficit must by rule & the act of the Govt. be made up to Roads.

Besides securing a strict adherence with this principle which is the intention of the Legislature in passing the Act. there was a clear understanding that of the (+ the for. contributions) very most 2/3rds of the land-cess shall be given to Roads. If any surplus unutilised balance shall go to Education.

Strictly speaking that was the exception.
