(Signed) H. E. STOKES,
Acting Secretary.

No. 117. ORDER THEREON, 14th January 1876, No. 82.

The Proceedings and accounts will be transferred to the Accountant-General, and the Special Fund Account will be awaited.

2. The General Local Fund Budget Estimate, ordered in Rule XXII. of the Local Fund Rules to be prepared by the Board of Revenue within a certain date, has hitherto been compiled in the Government Office itself, but at a much later date than that specified; the Board will now undertake the preparation of the General Budget for 1876-77, and will furnish it in time for submission to the Government of India together with the Provincial Budget. Measures will be taken for returning to the Board's Office in due time the separate Circle Budgets.

3. To enable the Public Works Department to incorporate in their Budget the Public Works portion of the Local Fund Budgets, the Board of Revenue should forward the Circle Budgets to that Department in original, detaining them only sufficiently long to enable them to make the necessary final corrections in pursuance of the orders of Government. The printing of the Circle Budgets can be postponed till after their return from the Public Works Department.
