Currency Returns.

No. 22. Read the following circular from E. F. HARRISON, Esq., Comptroller-General, to all Accountants-General, dated Calcutta, 7th January 1876, No. 224 :—

I have drawn the attention of Government to the labor expended in keeping up the detailed record necessary for the compilation of the Quarterly Currency Returns noticed in paragraph 20 of my Circular No. 215, and the Form A annexed, and it has consented to the substitution of a simpler form which I now circulate as Circular No. 32 of my Treasury Series. The form now prescribed is so simple that I will ask you to forward a compiled statement for your province instead of the original statement as directed in paragraph 20 of my circular ; there would be a list of districts with ten figured columns over against them as the balance figures would not be required by the Head Commissioner.

Circular from E. F. HARRISON, Esq., Comptroller-General, to the $\frac{\text{Collector}}{\text{Deputy Commissioner}}$ of , dated Calcutta, 7th January 1876, No. 32.

I have the honor to request that you will substitute the annexed form for that noticed in paragraph 20 of my Circular No. 27 ; you will observe that it demands no particulars of the denominations of the Notes which pass through your Office, and will thus give much less trouble.

Statement of Currency Notes received into, and issued from, the Treasury during the Quarter ending

	Value Received from	Value Issued to General Treasury, Bank of...
Other Treasuries
Public in payment of Government dues
Do. for Silver
Do. in exchange for Notes of other values ...
Total Transactions ...
Balances as per Cash Balance Report
Grand Total ...

The opening balance should be shown under Receipts, the closing under Issues, in order that grand totals may be made to prove the statement.

The value of Notes received in exchange for Notes will, of course, agree with the value so issued.

It is not necessary in this return to make any distinction between Notes of the Home and of Foreign Circles.
