Budget.

No. 93. Read the following letter from Lieutenant D. LISSENBURG, Barrack Master, Fort St. George, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort St. George, 31st January 1876, No. 244:—

I have the honor to submit the accompanying estimate of the probable expenses of this department for the official year 1876-77 for repairs and renewal of ropes, fringes, and wheels of punkahs, &c., in use with the offices and other public civil buildings and for the conservancy establishment of the East Indian privy on the north-east blind, Fort St. George.

No. 94. ORDER THEREON, 8th February 1876, No. 285.

The Budget Estimate of charges of the Barrack Master for 1876-77, which, in common with all other departmental Budgets, should have reached Government in October, is submitted three months after date without any explanation of the cause of delay. The Barrack Master will be instructed to arrange for the punctual submission to Government of all future Budget Estimates, so as to reach them in the month of October of each year.
