Fort St. George, February 22, 1876.

The Government of India having ruled that the grant of the "usual subsidiary leave" to officers proceeding on furlough or special leave applies to subsidiary leave both before and after leave of the above descriptions, and that fresh sanction to the grant of subsidiary leave on return from furlough or special leave is therefore unnecessary, the Governor in Council hereby notifies that for the future the words "with the usual subsidiary leave" will be added in the Gazette notification granting special leave or furlough. It will be optional with the officers concerned to take the whole or as little of the subsidiary leave thus given as they may require.
