Family Remittances.

No. 245. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department (Accounts), dated Fort William, 16th February 1876, No. 907 :—

Read the following letter from the Secretary of State for India, to the Government of India, dated 23rd December 1875, No. 631 :—

I have considered in Council your Financial letter, dated the 30th August last, No. 301, in which you recommend that Mechanics and others engaged for service in India, who, after completion of their service under Covenant, continue to serve under the ordinary conditions applicable to Uncovenanted Officers, might be allowed to continue the privilege of remitting a portion of their pay through this office for the support of their families.

2. Your recommendation is sanctioned, on the condition that each person applying for such a remittance shall satisfactorily show that it is required bonâ fide for the support of his family. It must also be a condition of the concession of this privilege that remittances shall be adjusted at the rate of exchange annually fixed between this office and Her Majesty's Treasury, and shall in no case exceed 12*l.* per mensem, as laid down in my Financial Despatch to the Government of Bombay, dated the 31st March 1874, No. 45, a copy of which was forwarded to you with my Financial Despatch of the same date, No. 181.

ORDERED, that the above be distributed for information and guidance as follows :—

To the several Departments of the Government of India.
To the several local Governments and Administrations.
To the Comptroller-General, and to the several Accountants-General and Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
To the several Chiefs of Departments administered by the Government of India in the Financial Department.
